

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program offers care providers in post-acute/long-term care facilities an opportunity to participate in discussions on topics vital to their practice setting, including updates in policy and regulatory changes, clinical treatment of dental, podiatric, and urinary tract diseases found in post-acute care, and issues surround legal depositions in long-term care.

OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:

- Demonstrate oral health risk assessment, educate care practitioners, and identify when it is necessary to refer for care
- Identify the roles of the interdisciplinary team in treating wound care and explain when advanced wound care is necessary
- Recognize when the use of antibiotic agents would be appropriate or inappropriate for UTI treatment in the geriatric population given certain clinical scenarios
- Understand the importance of timely visits and accurate documentation for successful transition to PDPM.
- Explain how to avoid pitfalls in senior care depositions

TARGET AUDIENCE

This program is directed toward medical directors, attending physicians, physician assistants, advance practice nurses, directors of nursing, registered nurses, certified nursing assistants, and other health care professionals practicing in long-term care.
